The Vicar writes:

Have you ever found yourself agreeing to do something and later wondering why you said yes?
This summer, along with hundreds of thousands of people from all over the world, I made the journey to a small village in Southern Germany called Oberammergau.
Every 10 years the village is transformed into a theatrical hub as a decennial passion play is performed by the local population.

The history of the Passion Play begins in 1633. Millions were dying as the plague spread relentlessly across Europe. The Oberammergau villagers promised to perform a play depicting the suffering, death and resurrection of Christ every tenth year if God would spare their village of any more deaths. Their prayers were answered and in 1634 the first Passion Play took place in the local churchyard. In the following decades it was a small local event, taking place at the beginning of each new decade, but its fame gradually grew and by the late 19th Century it was beginning to attract so many visitors that a special theatre was built and the modern spectacular we see today was born.

Delayed for two years due to the pandemic, 2022 sees the 42nd incarnation of the play. In a five-hour-performance (don't worry you get a break for dinner in the middle!), more than 2000 participants, all local villagers, bring the story of Jesus' last days to a packed audience that will number over half a million people by the time the run ends in early October.

Though I had heard about the play for many years it's fair to say that I had no particular desire to go. A five hour play in German, a very familiar story and an amateur cast did not have me rushing immediately to the ticket booth. However, having been persuaded by friends to join them, I sat down for the early afternoon start with few expectations.

But oh, how wrong I was to doubt, From the opening scene, depicting Jesus' entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, the visual spectacular is mesmerising with a vast crowd cheering and waving palms. From these massive set pieces down to intimate conversations between two characters, to see the bible come to life in such a way is intensely profound and moving.

The story itself is also a revelation. We might think we know the story of Jesus passion intimately but to see it against the background of all that is going on in the world at the moment, particularly in Ukraine, themes such as war, hunger, persecution, and displacement stand out sharply as does a focus on the effects on Judas mental health following his betrayal of Jesus.

This most ancient of stories, played out by local villages in 21st Century Germany does much to highlight the timelessness of the human experience from Jesus' day to this. I left the theatre with much to ponder and immensely grateful for the experience.

God willing the play will resume one again in 2030 – Do take the opportunity to go if you can, I don't think you will regret it!

Blessings, Jane

CHURCH FLOWERS

SEPTEMBER flowers include a dedication for Terry Jones and MW Avery.

Each month we can create memorial dedications, wedding, anniversary or special occasion flowers – contact marionne.locke@btinternet.com

STAMPS!

Please continue to save your postage stamps and foreign or out of circulation coins – many charities can use them to raise funds. At the moment we are supporting the Essex and Herts Air Ambulance with the coins, they no longer accept the stamps but I'm looking into finding a local charity that do. Stamps and coins can be left with Lyn and Dave at 94 Upshire Road and left in the porch. Note: please remember to leave about $\frac{1}{2}$ " of envelope around the stamp. Thank you.

BEWARE OF THE DEER!

With such a dry summer most plants have matured early and the seasons are changing, likewise the deer. The rutting season has started possibly a month early. This means that the deer are not as timid as usual and not worried by traffic or people. With the large numbers of deer now in the Upshire area it is unwise to exceed the speed limit. All dogs should be kept on leads even in the forest at this time as a herd of anything up to sixty deer being chased across any road day or a night is a recipe for disaster.

GROWERS CORNER

A dry summer means early harvesting due to crops maturing sooner than expected but with hosepipe bans grey water can be used to extend the season for such as runner beans and the like.

If you wish to brighten up an area winter pansies and violas are now available in garden centres and nurseries for planting up pots, planters or hanging baskets.

Winter 2022 and summer 2023 bulbs are now in stock to purchase to enable you to pot them up for a Christmas show or present or for a spring or summer display.

Try to save as much flower and vegetable seed as possible this year if you can as inflation will affect next spring's plant and seed sales.

This summer has been very dry with most lawns browning off. Once we have a good shower of rain or two our lawns will green up then we can get to work on repairs, aeration, sweeping off, reseeding and watering before the first frost in late October.

Steve.

GARDENERS NOTE

Free bagged compost ready for collection: ring 07960 809799.

Any donation to the church fabric fund would be nice. Thank you.

UPSHIRE MOTHERS' UNION

In July Maureen Smith gave an interesting talk on Sir Thomas Buxton, 3rd Baronet and Lady Victoria Buxton who lived at Warlies House.

Lady Victoria was born July 1839 to Charles Noel, 1st Earl of Gainsborough and his wife Lady Frances Jocelyn, Countess of Gainsborough. She spent her early years at Exton Hall, Rutland. Queen Victoria was her Godmother.

Sir Thomas was born January 1837 to Sir Edward North Buxton, 2nd Baronet and his wife Catherine Gurney. Sir Thomas attended Harrow School in London and Trinity College, Cambridge.

In 1862 they visited Warlies for the first time. Lady Victoria's description of the house was, very small and ugly but with wonderful views.

Sir Thomas and Lady Victoria married in June 1862. Lady Victoria received, as a wedding gift from Queen Victoria, an Indian shawl and an Emerald and Diamond bracelet.

While they were away on honeymoon, travelling Europe and England, Warlies was extended to cater for all their needs, including housing for the staff.

They bought many items on honeymoon to decorate Warlies House. They also had homes in Cromer, Norfolk and London. It is believed Warlies was their favorite as they split their time between their homes, spending November to February at Warlies, February to May in London, May to September at Warlies and September to November in Cromer.

Sir Thomas and Lady Victoria had thirteen children, only ten survived: Sir Thomas, 4th Baronet 1865, Edith 1867, Noel 1869, Mary 1870, Constance 1872, Victoria 1874, Charles 1875, Mabel 1878, Harold 1880 and Leland 1884.

In 1869, three weeks after giving birth to her 3rd child, Lady Victoria possibly had a fall while out walking resulting in a crippling spinal condition and became an invalid for the rest of her life. This didn't stop her from having more children and being very involved, along with her husband, in local life.

In winter, the lakes in the grounds of Warlies would freeze over and they would throw open the grounds for locals to enjoy skating on the frozen lakes.

Sir Thomas had a political career and was elected a Liberal Member of Parliament for King's Lynn in 1865, he was defeated in 1868. He stood again for Parliament, unsuccessfully, on several other occasions too. In 1895 he was appointed 13th Governor of South Australia. Lady Victoria accompanied her husband to South Australia. They returned to England in 1898.

Religion played a big part in their lives. Lady Victoria was the founder of the Upshire Mothers' Union branch, she was also the founding President of the Mothers' Union of South Australia. The couple also supported church missions, including the YMCA.

In 1901 there was talk about having a church in Upshire Village. So Sir Thomas had a church built in 1902, which is the St Thomas Church we know today. Lady Victoria used to be transported up the hill to the church in a tiny horse drawn carriage so she could be part of the congregation.

Sir Thomas died in 1915 and Lady Victoria died in 1916. They both died while at Cromer and are buried at Overstrand Church, Norfolk.

Our next meeting on 7th September (a change from our usual date) will be Corporate Communion in St Thomas Church followed by tea in church. All are welcome. Tea Hostess: Gill Negus. Raffle: Kate Dale. Further information from Ann Smith on 01992 767809.

MacMillan Cancer Support

This month as St Thomas' Church is taking part in the MacMillan Cancer Support World Biggest Coffee Morning, I thought I'd tell you a bit more about this charity.

The charity was founded in 1911 by Douglas MacMillan, who was so moved by the pain and suffering of his father as he died of cancer that he used his £10 inheritance to set up the Society for the Prevention and Relief of Cancer. He wanted advice and information to be provided to all people with cancer, homes for patients at low or no cost, and voluntary nurses to attend to patients in their own homes. Since then the charity's name has changed several times as the emphasis of their work has changed. Today they are UK's leading source of cancer support. They are here to help everyone with cancer live life as fully as they can, by providing physical, financial and emotional support.

From the moment someone is diagnosed with cancer, they are there with all the information, support and guidance the person needs. MacMillan nurses support people during treatment, but there are also MacMillan GPs to support early diagnosis and Allied Health Professionals, including physiotherapists, counsellors and dieticians, to provide physical, emotional and financial support. In 2021 MacMillan Nurses supported more than 1 million people living with cancer and Allied Health Professionals helped more than 130,000 people.

Since 1976 MacMillan Cancer Support has built over 225 Macmillan Cancer Centres, including Information and Support Centres, Clinical Oncology Centres and Hospices. Their centres offer a range of clinical, emotional and practical support. Last year an estimated 108,000 people living with cancer received treatment in a Macmillan Cancer Centre.

MacMillan Cancer Support believes that everyone living with cancer should have access to the information and support they need to understand their cancer and make important decisions about their care. This is provided by a MacMillan Support Line, their website and their Information and Support Centres. In addition there is a MacMillan Online Community, where those affected by cancer are able to support each other.

MacMillan Cancer support is also able to support people with money worries and provide social, emotional and practical support services.

The first 'World's Biggest Coffee Morning' was held in 1991 when 300,000 people took part and raised over £250,000. In 2014 over £25 million was raised, but in 2021 only £11 million was raised. St Thomas' Church is holding a coffee morning and cake baking competition on 23rd September. . Last year our Coffee Morning raised over £340. Please help us raise even more this year to support this charity which does so much to improve the lives of those with cancer.

SHOE BOX APPEAL

I have just had confirmation from Blythswood Care that the 2022 Shoe Box Appeal will be going ahead so start collecting all the bits and pieces to fill a shoe box for children and adults of all ages.

Cover a shoe box with brightly coloured paper (if the lid is loose cover this separately from the base) and fill with goodies you think the recipient would love. Do not seal up the box (put an elastic band or ribbon round to hold the lid in place) as contents in all boxes have to be checked for customs. Items most essential are toothbrush/paste, soap, flannel, small toy for the children (no toy guns/knives or other war related articles please), hat, scarf and gloves, underwear/socks and sweets (no chocolate including chocolate éclairs/colouring books, pens & pencils, ruler, rubber, pencil sharpener, comb/brush, sanitary products, razors/shaving foam, deodorant, new make-up, other clothing – the list is endless, but no food other than the sweets, please).

The leaflets giving all the information should be with me shortly – I've ordered 140 as we sent 120 the last two years and hope to increase that this year.

Mairi from Blythswood wrote "this year the need for shoe box gifts is greater than ever. We will be sending shoe boxes to people in Ukraine, to neighbouring countries supporting Ukraine refugees as well as those whose lives continue to be marked by poverty across Eastern Europe." Blythswood also deliver boxes to people in the UK as well as supporting Food Banks.

When Adam met Eve

The topic for my class was palindromes, which are of course words or sentences that are the same read forward and backward. I asked the question 'What is the first thing Adam said to Eve?' I was expecting 'Madam, I'm Adam', but one student had a better reply: "Wow."

Listen up

While I was giving a sermon one Sunday, two teenage girls at the back giggled and disturbed people. Finally, I interrupted my sermon and announced sternly, "There are two of you here who have not heard a word I've said." That quieted them down. When the service was over, I went to greet people at the front door. Three members of the PCC shuffled by, apologised for going to sleep in church, and promising it would never happen again.

Mystery music

A friend of mine, a professional organist, was asked to play for a wedding. Unfamiliar with the church's organ, she went to the sanctuary to practise. Curious about a small keyboard that slid out from under the two regular keyboards, she tapped out a couple of bars of a simple tune but heard nothing. Then she played a few more notes, but still no organ music. Just then a man came running into the church, shouting, "Who's playing 'Three Blind Mice' on the church-steeple bells?" She had been operating the carillon.

When all else fails

My colleague and I delivered a large refrigerator to the local priest's home. With difficulty we had managed to get the fridge into the porch, but then struggled for over 20 minutes to make the 90-degree turn through the narrow door. The priest, seeing our difficulty, asked what we usually did when confronted with such a situation. Rubbing some badly skinned knuckles, I replied, "Well, Father, at this point we usually start swearing."

"That's fine, gentlemen," Father replied, "just allow me time to move out of earshot, so you can continue your work."
